Ossining Town Board to Appoint Nancy Quinn Koba Town Justice Koba to Fill Position left Vacant by Judge Connolly's Appointment to State Supreme Court

(October 9, 2009) Nancy Quinn Koba will be appointed to the vacant Ossining Town Justice position on Tuesday, October 13, Supervisor Catherine Borgia announced today. The appointment will run through December 31, 2009. The November 3 election will determine who fills the post for a four-year term beginning January 1, 2009.

An attorney with 24 years of experience, Nancy Koba brings administrative, legal and community service background to the role of Town Justice. Ms Koba was also recently selected to be the Democratic nominee to run for the position in the upcoming election.

Over 20 applicants were considered for this appointment. The Town Board has been working with the office of Court Administration to fill the vacancy up through October. Ms. Koba has agreed to fill the post at the rate currently being paid to the substitute judges through the end of the year.

“We are very pleased to appoint Nancy Koba to this position of Town Justice. Ms. Koba’s combined legal expertise, her deep understanding of the needs of our community, and her practical approach will serve Ossining well” Borgia said, “We were very fortunate to have a number of excellent applicants for this position. Ossining is lucky to have such a wealth of talented and dedicated citizens.”
