Ossining Earth Day 40/Stash the Trash Event Set for April 10 Family Day to Help Keep Ossining Beautiful and Learn About Living a More Sustainable Life

(March 29, 2010) What better way to commemorate the 40th anniversary of Earth Day, and the 20th Annual Stash the Trash than to work with your family and friends to help keep Ossining beautiful? Or to join your neighbors in a fun, educational Earth Day celebration at the beautiful Louis B. Engel Waterfront Park?

Featured events of the day, which have been organized by the Town/Village Green Ossining Committee include:

Stash the Trash: Meet at 9am at the Joseph G Community Center, 95 Broadway; the Ossining Historical Society at Croton Avenue, or the Jug Tavern, 74 Revolutionary Road to get your assigned clean up territory, gloves and bags. This year, biodegradable garbage bags

Earth Day 40 Celebration: 11am-4pm: Come to Louis B. Engel Waterfront Park for a fun and educational day with your family, featuring music, children's activities and information about how to save money by reducing your carbon footprint. Special events throughout the day!

There are still limited vendor spaces available for those who have green business ventures.
