Town Seeking Volunteers to Serve on Business Incentive Board

(May 24, 2011) The Ossining Town Board is seeking resumes of interested volunteers to serve on a citizen advisory board known as the “Industrial and Commercial Incentive Board” of the Town of Ossining.”

The this advisory board will seek out ideas and make recommendations to the Town of Ossining Town Board about legal options available to the Town to give partial real property tax exemption for certain commercial business or industrial improvements as per NYS Real Property Tax Law, and to work in collaboration with local merchants and the Ossining and Briarcliff Chambers of Commerce to support and attract business to Ossining.

The Industrial and Commercial Incentive Board will consist of five members, with one of the members serving as a Chairperson. Ideal candidates will have professional or educational expertise in the financial, marketing, or general business sector. The committee will meet once a month and will interact with the Supervisor, Town Board, local merchants, and local business organizations. Interested residents should send resumes to: Catherine Borgia, Town of Ossining, 16 Croton Avenue, Ossining, NY 10562, or via fax: 914-762-0833, or via email:cborgia@townofossining.com, by June 13, 2011.

For more information, contact Catherine Borgia at: 914-762-6001 or 914-262-8873.
