CALL TO ARTISTS -

The Town of Ossining (TOO) will introduce a new venue for the arts in April. It's called The Cedar Lane Arts Center. The new arts center, located in Cedar Lane Park on Cedar Lane in Ossining, just adjacent to the Organic Community Garden, will be home to a Ceramic and Arts studio as well as host space for gardeners and other symbiotic community events. A ribbon cutting ceremony will held on April 21.

The Ossining Arts Council and TOO invite all artists to submit their vision for a sign that will greet people as they enter the building.

COMPETITION DETAILS:

- 1) The measurements for the piece that will hang on the wall should be approximately 4' x 6'
- 2) Artists are requested to submit a rendering of their finished piece in JPEG format.
- 3) Please send your file to: cedarlane@ossiningartscouncil.org
- 4) Artists are encouraged to think about a finished piece that can be fabricated from various objects but must be ready to be wall mounted
- 5) A $20 entry fee will apply (in hardship cases, please contact Mark Sarazen to apply for a fee waiver)
- 6) Please make checks payable to: the Town of Ossining
